

Lot of Useless Thinking.

"Your little birdie has been very, very ill," she wrote to the young man. "It is some sort of nervous trouble, and the doctors said I must think of nothing. And all the time, dear Gussy, I thought constantly of you."

The young man read it over, and then read it through very slowly, and put it in his pocket, and went out under the silent stars, and kept thinking, and thinking, and thinking.—London Tit-Bits.

Just for Ma's Room.

A little Guthrie girl went into a grocery store and asked for a box of matches.

"Do you want parlor matches?" asked the clerk.

"No'm," said the girl. "I just want 'em for ma's room."—Guthrie (Okla.) State Capital.

Just Discovered It.

"Shmashable thing," asserted Mr. McShosh, "how a little liquor'll sharpen man's powers 'v observation. Now, I know that th' world's been whidin' round at frightful rate o' speed for m-m-millions o' years—but thist first time I ever noticed it I-m-self!"—Cleveland Leader.

Henrietta Crossman.
The double bill "Nance Oldfield" and "Madeline" in which Henrietta Crossman will appear at the Barre opera house soon, is one of the most popular in her repertoire. Combining as it does comedy and tragedy it gives Miss Crossman an opportunity to display her wonderful versatility. "Nance Oldfield" one of the most delightful of the old English comedies, is considered a classic. In it Miss Crossman has made one of her most pronounced successes. The tragedy of "Madeline" is by Mrs. W. K. Clifford of London, a writer of renown. It is powerful story of strong heart interest and has probably created more comment than any play yet produced by Miss Crossman.

WORTH A THOUGHT.

This Statement Will Interest Scores of Barre Readers.

The facts given below are worth a perusal by all who are anxious about their physical condition or are similarly situated to this resident of Orange. It is a local occurrence and can be thoroughly investigated.

Mrs. A. M. Andrews (A. M. Andrews, farmer), residence, Orange, says: "Some two years ago I first noticed pain in my back and hips and as the weeks and months went by it became more severe and was of much longer duration. Finally too frequent action of the kidney secretions was added to the backache, and as they were often distressing and annoying health ran down and it was impossible for me to do the slightest housework with any degree of pleasure. If I was on my feet for any length of time I was taken with dizziness and blurring before my eyes and I often became so weak and nervous that I almost fell. A lady friend in Barre recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and my husband went to E. A. Drown's for the first box. I cannot positively state that the remedy has actually rid me of the cause of the backache and other complications due to kidney complaint, but I must conscientiously say that from the benefit received I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and believe that what is said about them is not misrepresentation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
